

MS in Information Technology (MSIT) APPLICATION PACKET

Section I: Application Requirements

The Hellenic American University requires applicants to submit a packet of materials to be considered as part of their application. The following information outlines the required materials and provides further explanations relating to formal documents and testing centers/procedures, where appropriate.

All application support documentation should consist of either the original documents or notarized copies. Since the language of instruction and administration at the Hellenic American University is English, documents that are not in English must be accompanied by certified English translations.

The accuracy and completeness of submitted material will facilitate the admissions process and the timely evaluation of the applicant's candidacy. All applications and support materials are retained by the Hellenic

CHECKLIST FOR APPLICANTS

- A non-refundable application fee of €30.

You will be contacted by the Admissions Office for an interview subsequent to submission of your application.

FURTHER INSTRUCTIONS

EVIDENCE OF ENGLISH LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY

The MS in Information Technology program is offered only in the English Language. Therefore evidence of English Language proficiency is required of all students. Acceptable forms of evidence include:

- a. An undergraduate or graduate degree from an institution in which English is the language of instruction.
- b. Official results of the Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL) taken within the last two years with a minimum score of 230 (CBT) or 88 (iBT) or 575 on the paper-based TOEFL.
- d. University of Michigan or Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English.
- e. Other evidence of proficiency will be reviewed individually.

LETTERS OF RECOMMENDATION

Two professional letters of recommendation are required from individuals of the applicant's choice. The recommendations should provide information regarding the applicant's academic and professional capabilities and potential. It is usually best to request recommendations from individuals who know the applicant well enough in an academic and professional capacity and can attest to his/her qualifications and ability for graduate study. Evaluators should complete the recommendation form (section III) enclose it in an envelope, seal it, and sign their name across the envelope seal

INTERNATIONAL APPLICANT INFORMATION

Citizens of countries that are not members of the European Union who wish to study at the University must obtain permission to enter Greece and to reside there in accordance with the current Greek laws. Applicants for admission are advised to verify the requirements for nationals of their country through the Greek Consular authorities. For additional details on the legal requirements for international applicants, you may also contact the University Admissions Office.

All international applicants are urged to register early for the appropriate TOEFL test administrations. Applicants make their own arrangements for the examinations and must have the results forwarded to the University.

PERSONAL INTERVIEWS

A personal interview is required by every applicant who appears to meet the standards for admission. International students who cannot be interviewed in Athens will be interviewed by telephone. During the personal interview, the applicant's prior academic and professional experiences will be discussed as part of the admissions process.

CONDITIONAL ADMISSIONS

Under certain circumstances, applicants who demonstrate excellent potential for successful completion of the program, but do not meet all entrance requirements, may be considered for conditional admission by the Admissions Committee. Students admitted in this manner must successfully remove any outstanding conditions within the time period established by the Admissions Committee in order to achieve unconditional status and officially continue in the program.

NON-DISCRIMINATION

Hellenic American University admits students of any race, color, national and ethnic origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion, physical disability, or veteran status to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the University. The university does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, religion, physical disability, or veteran status in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic or other school-administered programs.

STUDENT RECORDS PRIVACY POLICY

The Hellenic American University Student Records Policy protects the privacy of student's education records. This policy is consistent with United States Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232G; 34 CFR Part 99), however, it does not abrogate any of the requirements of, or rights under, the terms of the 2472/97 Data Protection Act, enforced by the Hellenic Data Protection Authority. The Hellenic American University Student Records policy is published in the Student Handbook.

The University reserves the right to make inquiries concerning the accuracy of the information provided in the candidate's application. Decisions on admission are made in good faith on the basis of information provided by the applicant and his/her referees. If the university later discovers that false statements have been made or material information withheld or omitted, it reserves the right to withdraw an offer of admission or to terminate registration.

Declaration

I am applying for admission to the MSIT program at the Hellenic American University. I understand that the decision to admit rests with the University. If admitted, I agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the Hellenic American University and to pay all tuition, fees, and expenses incurred by me there. I also understand that my personal information and papers (including amendments) are stored as part of my student record electronically on a database and manually. All personal information is treated strictly according to the terms of the 2472/97 Data Protection Act, enforced by the Hellenic Data Protection Authority, and the Hellenic American University Student Records Privacy Policy, as set forth in the University catalog. This Act requires that all information be accurate, obtained fairly, and not divulged to people without permission or authority. It gives me the right to check the information held and to correct it if necessary. I am aware of the conditions of admission and the University's expectations. I confirm that to the best of my knowledge, the information contained in my application is complete and accurate.
